

ALAN MARTIN

2431 Woodfield Loop S.E. ~ Olympia, WA. 98501
(360) 438-6234

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Accomplished legal and political consultant with expertise in legislative and constituent concerns, communications, and problem resolution. Strengths in assessment, planning and organization. Action-oriented with ability to activate resources to produce quality results.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

- Verbal/Written Communications
- Expert Understanding of RCWs/WACs
- Public Relations/Negotiations
- Research/Preparation
- Legislative Committee Hearing Presentations
- Knowledge of Legislative Procedures/Protocol

EDUCATION & TRAINING

University of Washington

* B.A. cum laude Political Science

Seattle, WA.

Southwestern University Law School

* J.D. degree

Los Angeles, CA.

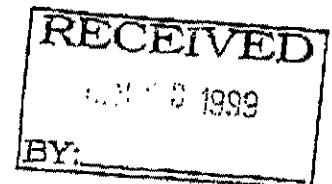

Washington State Bar Association

* Continuing Legal Education Seminars

QUALIFIED WORK HISTORY

Northwest Political Consulting

Owner, Political Consultant 1996 - Present

Alan Martin

Page 2

Washington Wildlife and Recreation Coalition
Legislative Grassroots Coordinator 1995-1996

Alan Martin, Attorney at Law
Private Practice 1980-1994

CAREER ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Managed 1998 general election campaign for Mark Miloscia in the 30th District House race.

Managed 1998 primary election campaign for Fred Finn in the 35th District House race.

Coordinated 1997 primary election campaign for State Senator Lena Swanson in the 35th District.

Organized grassroots and outreach programs in state legislative districts to promote the Washington Wildlife and Recreation Coalition (WWRC), a non-profit organization. Spearheaded lobbying efforts in the 1995 legislative session resulting in a $45 million biennial appropriation for WWRC projects throughout Washington. Coordinated "Road Shows" throughout Washington, which mobilized support for WWRC at the local level. Directed WWRC's Lobby Day in Olympia, which enhanced the organization's legislative profile.

Represented private personal injury cases including Labor & Industries and major insurance carriers in Thurston, Mason and Kitsap Counties.

PROFESSIONAL REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST